jQuery Selectors Practice Programs

1. Write a program using HTML and jQuery to generate the following output

i. Create a button with value "Click Me"

ii. On Page load change the background color of the button to Yellow . Demonstrate this using ID selector.

2. Write a program using HTML and jQuery to generate the following output

i. Create a table with contents as shown above

ii. On page load using jQuery change background color of odd rows to grey and even rows to yellow. Demonstrate using Element selector. Note: Table rows start with row number zero.

3. Write program using HTML and jQuery to generate the following output

i. Create four div elements. Provide the class name to first two div elements as small and class name to next two div elements as big

ii. On page load change the border color of div elements with class small to 5px solid red and border color of div elements with class big to 5px solid green